

HFN
 March 24, 2009
 Circulation - 18,042
 Media Impressions - 72,168

HFN
Wednesday

tabletop

Fusing Practicality and Fashion

Continued from page 12

Kane Industries is offering its Great Foundations collection, which integrates tabletop with kitchen textiles. It is a staple program that can be changed seasonally with a swap of accessories. kane-home.com

Davis Stripe, a new 12-piece stoneware set from Tien Shan, uses bright, invigorating colors and banding to energize the table. Pieces include a dinner plate, salad plate and soup bowl. 203-866-6262

Bormioli Rocco offers a modern, stackable glass tumbler in an hour-glass shape. Pegaso is available in a double old-fashioned and a cooler size, available in a four-piece gift pack. bormioliroccocasa.com

Pfaltzgraf's new Palermo dinnerware recalls the Italian countryside with a loose floral pattern in sunny shades of yellow, red and purple. A 16-piece set of Palermo retails for $49.99. pfaltzgraf.com

Corelle's Provencal dinnerware is inspired by the graceful florals of Provence. The sophisticated blue floral pattern complements both modern and traditional tables. corelle.com

New Grand Palace 18/10 stainless steel flatware from J.A. Henckels has subtle detailing at the end of the handle. jahenckels.com

Pasabahce is showcasing new tumbler shapes, some of which are stackable; kitchen storage jars; a brand new stemware shape called Dream; and these colorful dessert dishes. sitsecam.com

Horizon is CCA's new coupe-shaped range in basic solid colors, including the white and fog colorways shown here. In addition, there are neutral tones such as chocolate, mocha, hazelnut and taupe. chinapearl.com

Continued on page 34